Top Reasons to Attend DFI45

- Network with the largest gathering of practitioners specializing in cutting-edge technologies for deep foundations, deep excavation support, and ground improvement.

- Celebrate the hard work, passion, connections, technologies and professionalism that drive the deep foundations industry worldwide.

- Share international experiences with worldwide experts.

- Learn the latest results from DFI-funded committee research initiatives that advance the state-of-practice of design and construction methods.

- Discuss and debate technical topics related to all aspects of deep foundations, particularly mega and regional projects, political influences on contract delivery, high value subsurface characterization, national and state codes and standards, professional practice and more.

- Visit the Exhibit Hall featuring more than 150 companies to learn about their products and services.

- Explore National Harbor and Washington D.C.!