

in partnership with

SuperPile'17

piling design & construction conference
Coronado, California

June 14 - 16, 2017

Loews Coronado Bay Resort

This three-day event will include presentations on the latest developments in:

- Designing for safety
- Drill rig and crane safety
- Driven pile safety
- Instrumentation, load testing, monitoring
- Procedures for reinforcing steel/cage lifting
- Reaction to extreme or unexpected conditions (inclement weather, flooding, seismic, etc.)
- Safety considerations for marine projects
- Safety culture (management, personnel, communication, training)
- Working platforms
- Projects relevant to the Southern California area
- Topics and case histories related to project safety

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS*

- DFI Technical Committee Meetings
- Women in Deep Foundations Lecture and Reception
- Osterberg Memorial Lecture
- Presentation of the Ben C. Gerwick Award for Innovation in the Design and Construction of Marine Foundations

For more information and to register visit www.dfi-superpile.org

For questions please contact DFI at (973) 423-4030 or events@dfi.org.

Program subject to change.*